Hello, my name is _. I am conducting research about current events in Mexico for researchers at UC Davis, Stanford University, and American University.

If you choose to participate, the interview will last about 30 minutes. We will ask questions about your community and your opinions.

Some of the things that we discuss during this interview may make you feel emotional. There are no direct benefits for you if you participate in this study, but it might benefit Mexico by helping us understand things in this area. We cannot and do not guarantee that you will receive any benefits from this study.

Everything that you say will be anonymous: we will not collect any contact information, and nothing will be linked back to you.

Participation is voluntary. You can stop the interview any time or skip questions.

If you have questions later, you can contact any of the people on this card. [HAND RESPONDENT THE CONTACT INFO CARD.]

Do you have any questions? [IF YES, ANSWER THE RESPONDENTS QUESTIONS. IF NO, CONTINUE]

Generally speaking, would you say that most people in your municipality can be trusted, or that you can't be too careful in dealing with people? Where '1' corresponds to answer "You can't be too careful" and '10' corresponds to answer "Most people can be trusted."

If you had a family emergency, how many people in your neighborhood, not including those who live in your household, would you feel comfortable leaving a key with to watch your apartment or house for the weekend?

A lot of people say that every person's day is different. Some people spend their days working outside the home, while others take care of family and the household. When people have free time, they like to spend it differently as well. Some people like to spend time with friends or go out to parties, while others prefer to stay at home watching TV, reading, or relaxing with family.

What tasks do you do on a regular basis to provide for yourself or your family?

What do you like to do to relax when you have some free time?

PROBE: What happened next? What was it like?

[WRITE A FEW KEY WORDS FROM THE RESPONSE.]

A lot of people say that the biggest problem in Mexico is the fact that powerful people can commit crimes without fear of being punished. Narcos murder anyone they want, politicians steal resources from the state, and nobody ever gets punished. Nobody goes to prison because of the corruption in our justice system. Mexico can't make progress if people break the law and don't face punishment.

How do you feel when you hear about criminals, politicians, and rich people getting away with serious crimes?

What kinds of punishments do you think violent criminals or corrupt politicians deserve?

[WRITE DOWN A FEW KEY WORDS FROM THE RESPONSE.]

A lot of people say that the biggest problem in Mexico is the fact that people break the law when it comes to punishing crimes. People get angry and take the law into their own hands by lynching or killing the criminal without waiting for the authorities to do their work. However, those who promise justice by taking the law into their own hands often end up committing other crimes and hurting innocent people. Mexico can't be a peaceful country if people give in to anger and don't respect the law.

What do you think when you hear about people breaking the law to punish criminals, rather than following the law?

What kinds of punishments do you think will make Mexico peaceful in the long run?
